

Bluff Estate, Malibu, California

This stunning home located on prestigious Point Dume bluff, with its sprawling property and extensive remodeling, has been redesigned as the ultimate Malibu getaway. This contemporary Tudor home has breathtaking views of Westward beach that extend as far as the eye can see. This 5bd, 7ba home is further complimented by the lit tennis court, basketball hoop, alfresco dining area for 10 and a serene Zen garden overlooking the ocean. The dramatic entry way offers you a glimpse into the relaxing yet chic style of design that is present throughout the entire house.

Entertain friends at one of the many dining areas around the property or simply relax with them in the great room as the doors open to unobstructed ocean views. If you choose to stay inside, enjoy the fireplaces, both in the great room and dining room, as well as the flat screen televisions in both living rooms. The Master bedroom is an oasis in itself with a private ocean-view patio, fireplace, seating area and a 70-inch flat screen TV. All guest bedrooms have been remodeled and decorated beautifully to include Queen or King beds and flat screen TV's. This luxe home is the perfect place to relax and enjoy all the beauty that Malibu has to offer.
