

HIDDEN CHIC VILLAS

DS Estate, Palm Springs, California

This iconic Mid century home was designed by the renowned architect Donald Wexler in 1964. Built on a secluded 1.3 acre desert compound, the estate is exceptionally private, and offers 6 bedrooms and 7.5 bathrooms between the main house, the guest house overlooking the pool, and the casita adjacent to the tennis court.

The living room boasts fantastic scale, generous seating, a grand piano, fireplace and cocktail bar. The property is located within Old Las Palmas, Palm Springs most sought after neighborhood. Vacation among homes once lived in by such Hollywood celebrities as Fran Sinatra, Marilyn Monroe, Elizabeth Taylor, Cary Grant, Liberace and Elvis Presley.

Walk to fine dining, clubs, live theatre, art galleries and Palm Canyon Drive. This luxury vacation rental has a convenient location for local events such as Coachella Music Festival and the Palm Springs Film Festival.

This furnished rental is one of the finest examples of Mid Century architecture in Southern California, the birth place of the progressive design movement.
