

HIDDEN CHIC VILLAS

Maison de Lavande, Lourmarin, France

Maison de Lavande is a stunning 16th century Provencal bastide set in 10 acres of beautifully landscaped grounds within walking distance of Lourmarin (classified one of France's most beautiful villages). The manicured garden has extensive lawns with topiaries, lavender, olive trees, cypresses and a large heated swimming pool. Closer to the house are luxuriously furnished covered areas for outdoor dining and entertaining.

Owned and decorated by a well known french designer, the house is immaculately furnished and accessorized with art, antiques, tasteful provencal linens, fabrics and lighting. Every room is comfortable and chic with a unique and striking charm. On the ground floor is a large open plan reception area, cosy library and TV room, powder room, drawing room, dining room and fully equipped gourmet kitchen, pantry and wine room. Veranda doors open onto the outdoor living and dining areas. There is also a queen bedroom with flatscreen TV and ensuite bathroom.

On the 1st floor is the master queen bedroom with dressing room and flat screen TV, 2 queen size bedrooms and 1 twin bedded room each with ensuite bathroom. The 2nd floor has a large vaulted room with 2 twin beds, dressing room and ensuite bathroom. There is also a separate guest house in the courtyard with twin beds, living room with flat screen TV and open plan kitchen.

This exquisite property is perfect for the most discerning of travelers wanting the finest of Provence.
