

HIDDEN CHIC VILLAS

Trullo Tramonto, Alberobello, Puglia, Italy

Trullo Tramonto is a fully restored Pugliese farmhouse, or masseria, with a pool set in the magnificent countryside close to the Unesco town of Alberobello. The farmhouse features iconic elements of local architecture, including 11 trulli cones and an old stable, which is now a state of the art kitchen. Throughout the restorative process, every detail has been given careful attention creating an atmosphere that is reflective of the region and refined in its design, comfortable and unique.

Trullo Tramonto is a country home that blends both rustic and contemporary style and offers the unique experience of living in a Trullo, found only in the area of Puglia. There are four queen bedrooms with private bathrooms all fitted with special touches in design. Another smaller bedroom, with shower room, on the top deck of the masseria, has spectacular views over the entire property, and can sleep 2 persons in a double bed.

There is a fully equipped gourmet kitchen for guests use, as well as the possibility of cooking classes with an experienced Italian chef. With a large outdoor dining table there is plenty of space for al fresco dining in the shade of bougainvillea or beneath a starlight sky at night. In addition to the pool the surrounding property includes a vegetable garden and several fruit and nut trees that are there for the picking. Hiking cycling, riding, visits to the sea, historical places of interest are a myriad of interesting things to do in Puglia.
