

HIDDEN CHIC VILLAS

Residence du Cap, Cap Estate, St Lucia

Nestled in the hills of an old sugar plantation, Residence du Cap is situated on approximately three quarters of an acre. This elegant property enjoys breathtaking view over the Caribbean Sea, Pigeon Island as well as Pitons. Residence du Cap is a 2 story house made up of three main bedrooms and a fully contained guest cottage that counts as a forth bedroom. The cottage is ideal as guest/ in law quarters.

Leading from a decked footbridge from the car port, you enter into a cool and open plan living and dining area. This then leads to a spacious fully equipped kitchen with microwave, blender, coffee machine and fridge/freezer.

The three double bedrooms located upstairs all have en suite bathrooms, are air conditioned and also have magnificent views. The master bedroom also has a a private balcony. At the rear of the villa is a patio and courtyard offering private seating areas and the front French doors that open to the decked verandas where you can relax under the warm sun or cool off in the pool.

There is a housekeeper/cook Monday through Saturday from 8 am to 3.30pm. She will serve breakfast and lunch and prepare dinner that will be left in the fridge when she leaves.
