Mudra Villa, Koh Samui, Thailand

Mudra Villa, sitting on a rocky point on the southern point of Koh-Samui, one of the most beautiful islands in Thailand, is a unique private compound in the gated Mudra-Samui community. As one guest says "Mudra Villa embodies Thailand-smiling faces, wonderful food, spiritual sunsets. This has it all!"

The villas 12 hand crafted structures comprise of an eclectic atlas of well considered design doorways, windows, chairs and tables from China, India and Thailand; a temple carried whole from Bali; rich textiles and artworks with pools and pathways lined with quarried stone. Mudra Villa offers a rare opportunity to experience the integration of sea, sky, forest, craftsmanship and a luxurious comfort rolled in to one.

There are five king size bedrooms, with three living rooms, pool sala, covered outside dining area, infinity edged pool and beach-front yoga sala. With a staff of 6 and 24 hr security, amenities include high definition projection facilities with surround sound in each living room, three double kayaks to explore the lagoon and reef, and a Balinese stone tiled infinity edged swimming pool that blends seamlessly with the lagoon beyond. As a bonus Mudra Villa is a short stroll down the beach from the award winning Wellness retreat of Kamalaya where there are yoga classes, health club and treatments of Eastern medicine as well as sumptuous healthy meals in two restaurants.

Mudra Villa was voted Best Island Villa by Islands Magazine in a recent article.
