

HIDDEN CHIC VILLAS

Splendor Villas, Anguilla, West Indies

Perched on the breathtaking cliffs overlooking Anguilla's Little Bay, Splendor Villas were carefully designed for smaller groups seeking a more private Caribbean escape and larger groups seeking a private property full of activities. With 10 bedrooms and large gathering spaces, the estate is perfect for destination weddings, family reunions and corporate retreats. There are two 5 bedroom villas with separate pools that can be rented together or separately.

Villas Splendor includes facilities and amenities expected within a world class resort but secluded within its own private grounds. The house concierge works prior to arrival to plan a range of services, activities, dining experiences, and excursions – be it a week of action or complete relaxation. The vacation packages are designed to provide guests with a care-free and pampered experience – with all staff, beverages, continental breakfast and chef services inclusive in the rates. Tennis court, gym, bicycles, pool table, boardgames and snorkeling equipment are just some of the facilities available. Also, a stereo system, DVD player, films and cable TV as well as wifi internet throughout.

Anguilla is renowned for its collection of white sand beaches, crystal clear turquoise waters, a remarkable assortment of local and fine dining restaurants as well as a warm and welcoming local population.

Anguilla is unique in its ability to deliver a sophisticated luxury travel experience while retaining its laid back island charm.
